Young Woman Representatives to Attend
“Quenched! By the Water”

Sarah Culbert and Shirley Senart are our district’s two Young Woman Representatives to “Quenched! by the Water,” the 2013 National LWML Convention in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Shirley Senart is a member of South Shore Trinity in White Bear Lake. As a little girl, Shirley noticed that her mother and grandmother came home from LWML rallies and conventions full of excitement and with a renewed passion for missions. Now Shirley is going to experience that same LWML excitement and renewal in Pittsburgh! Shirley has been in the foreign mission field and is passionate about mission work. Shirley knows that LWML is a way for her to remain connected to and supportive of mission work.

Sarah Culbert is a member of St. Stephanus in St. Paul. Sarah is a leader with deep and sincere compassion for people. When Sarah was only 19, she organized a clothing drive! She enlisted the help of other mission-minded Lutherans to give away over 2,000 pieces of clothing to God’s children in the Frog Town neighborhood of St. Paul. Sarah has also helped sew pillowcase dresses. In Pittsburgh, Sarah will learn the full scope and breadth of how the LWML shares her desire to serve others.

I bet you see a little bit of Shirley and Sarah in yourself. Do you come home from rallies and conventions with a renewed passion for mission work? Do you care deeply about God’s people and serve Him by serving them? Yes, we women of the LWML may differ from one another in age, shape, zip code and hair color, but we have the most important thing in common: we are all here in the LWML together making a joyful response to the free gift of forgiveness of sins we have received by grace through faith in Jesus’ death and resurrection! Just like Shirley and Sarah, we love the Lord and His mission.

Please pray for Shirley and Sarah—ask God to bless their convention experience. Please pray about Shirley and Sarah—thank God for the many women of our district who, like Shirley and Sarah, have a living, active faith. Then meet Shirley and Sarah. Invite them to speak at your society meetings. Support them as fresh, young faces of LWML. Welcome them into LWML as sisters in Christ.

Mighty Mites at Work for God’s Kingdom!

by Debi Ylitalo, LWML Minnesota South District Vice President of Gospel Outreach

Our LWML Minnesota South District Mighty Mites at Work is spotlighting our Mission Grant #3, “Concordia Theological Seminary, Financial Assistance for Food & Clothing Co-op, Fort Wayne, Indiana”. The grant amount of $10,000 goes towards the purchase of two months worth of perishable items for the Food and Clothing Co-op.

When the seminary students make the decision to quit their jobs and come to the seminary (with their families) they no longer have the financial flow of funds that they had before. Yet, they continue to have the same financial needs. The students’ wives do find employment in the Fort Wayne area. Of- tentimes, these women are marginalized because employers know that they will only be here for two years. This can throw the families into difficult financial positions.

One of the ways that the seminary helps to alleviate this financial burden is by providing the students access to a Food Co-op. The Co-op currently supplies between 75% and 85% of all families’ food and household needs each month. Relying on donations from individuals, congregations and organizations, the Co-op is able to meet those needs at no cost to the student!

Appreciation, gratitude, a special blessing, generous, treasured partner, these are some of the words used to describe how the support we (District LWML) offer makes the families and the staff feel. Through the Food Co-op, God shows the students and their families His faithfulness and encouragement to trust Him. 2 Corinthians 9:10 states, “And God Who provides seed for the sower and bread for eating will also provide and multiply your sowing and increase the fruits of your righteousness.” All Praise to God for turning our mites into Mighty Mites for His purpose!
“Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Matthew 28:20

In Carole King’s famous “Tapestry” album, she sings a rather moody song entitled, “So Far Away.” Here are some of the lyrics:

So far away –
Doesn’t anybody stay in one place anymore?
It would be so fine to see your face at my door.
But it doesn’t help to know, that you’re so far away.

Unfortunately, when it comes to the Ascension of Jesus, many of us are inclined to think in just the same fashion. Christ ascended into glory and has left us behind. We gaze at the sky and think of “God watching us from a distance.” That’s from Bette Midler. Sorry, let’s not get too many songs going here!

Forty days after His resurrection, our Lord ascended into heaven. But before He did, He spoke to His disciples on Galilee’s high mountain. The blessed Savior promised: “Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” That promise is also for you and me!

We wonder, “How can this be?” We know that Jesus withdrew His physical appearance from His disciples. His body went up into the sky and a cloud hid Him from sight (Acts 1:9-11). But the point that needs to be strenuously asserted for our comfort is this: Jesus ascended in order to be with us! He ascends to be with His Church! This is why Jesus can promise what He did: “Lo, I am with you always.”

Has Jesus abandoned us only to reunite with us again when He comes again in glory? No way! Christ ascended in order that His human nature would be exalted beyond all limitations. Christ ascended that He would be powerfully with His people, not only according to His divine nature, but also according to His glorified and exalted humanity. We do not see His physical presence at this time, but the God-man is with us – in a way even more significant than He was with His disciples during His earthly ministry. For His human nature has been exalted to the throne of divine majesty. We worship the God-man, Jesus Christ, who reigns forever for our benefit.

Is Jesus so far away? No! He is with us, even to the end of the world. Is He with us only according to His divine nature? No! Wherever Christ is in His divinity, there He also is in His humanity. “Lo, I am with you always.” These words are for your great comfort. Hear what our Lutheran Confessions teaches us on the basis of this Word from God:

“…[Christ] is present especially with His church and community on earth as Mediator, Head, King, and High Priest…He is present not only according to His deity, but also according to and with the assumed human nature, according to which He is our brother and we are flesh of His flesh and bone of His bone (Eph. 5:30). He instituted His Holy Supper as a certain assurance and confirmation of this, that also in the nature according to which He has flesh and blood He wants to be with us, to dwell in us, to work in us, and to exert His power for us.”

(Formula of Concord, Solid Declaration, 78-79, Kolb/Wengert, p. 631).

A CHALLENGE - COURAGE OR FEAR

As we now are entering into the season of the church year after Pentecost or as some would think of it as summer vacation time, we look forward to maybe a more relaxing time.

As the followers of Jesus experienced the power of the Holy Spirit they often showed courage where before they showed fear. Which do you experience as you are looking forward to the summer activities in which you will be involved? Maybe you are involved with planning a class or family reunion. Again how comfortable are you? Are you ready to go ahead or do you wish someone else would do it.

Then suddenly someone asks you to consider running for an LWML office be it on the local society, zone, or district level. Now how do you react? Is it with courage or with fear? Or does your reaction depend upon what you’ve done before or anticipated doing in the future? Do you pray about it? Or do you try to go it alone? The rewards of doing it are very great. Some of us would not have dreamed of eventually doing what we are doing today. But with the Lord walking beside us or sometimes carrying us, all things are possible. So if you get asked to run for an office, pray about it, consider it, and let the Lord guide you.

Which do you experience when you want to do something or are asked to do something? Does it depend upon whether or not you’ve done it before? As we get ready to go to Pittsburgh to attend the LWML convention, most of us will look at it with anticipation. It doesn’t take too much courage or not too fearful. We know we will be surrounded by other Christian women and men who believe in the goals, aims, beliefs of what LWML stands for.

Or maybe you can’t go to Pittsburgh, but are going to the retreat in July. We might feel quite comfortable as we are going to a familiar setting, that is the campus of Gustavus Adolphus College, again meeting with fellow sisters and brothers in Christ.

Do you have the courage to step outside the box and do something which the Lord has been preparing you to do? Overcome the fear of doing something new and be ready for the challenge to continue to Serve the Lord with Gladness.

Remember in all that you do, the Lord is right there beside you. Pray! He will guide you.

Your Sister in Christ,
Darleen A. Harens 2010-2014

Mighty Mites at Work for God’s Kingdom!
by Debi Ylitalo, LWML Minnesota South District Vice President of Gospel Outreach

Our LWML Minnesota South District Mighty Mites at Work for God is spotlighting our Mission Grant #4, “A Grant to Provide Financial Assistance to Students Attending Lutheran High Schools in the Minnesota South District, Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod”. The grant amount of $50,000 helps provide a Christ-centered education to the five (5) high schools in the Minnesota South District. The grant is apportioned equally to each of the high schools at $10,000 each. The five high schools are Cannon Valley Lutheran High School, Concordia Academy-Roseville, Hope Lutheran High School, Martin Luther High school and Mayer Lutheran High School.

These Lutheran high schools encourage and support students to enter church work and mission education fields such as teaching ministries, pastoral ministries, music ministries, and youth ministries. The students are encouraged to promote Christian education at home, in their communities, and in their respective congregations. In the past two years, several unbelieving students in these high schools have come to faith in Jesus Christ, as a result of the Gospel being shared with them.

MITE MINUTE

It is really fun watching the MITE THERMOMETER go up each month! Wendy does a great job adding the totals. Remember: The more you give, the faster it goes up!! I’m still waiting for a correct answer to my trivia question. What church name is most common in the MN South District? The first person with the correct answer will receive $10 added to her Society Mite total. ~Remember that all contributions are to be sent to the Financial Secretary: Darlene Fretham, 209 West Central Street, Springfield, MN 56087.
